

JOHN L. SIMPSON

STATOTHR

October 10, 1958

Dear Allen:

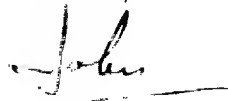

Thank you very much for your letter of the 4th regarding [redacted]. I am sorry The World Affairs Council cannot have him as a speaker at the present time but hope that there may be some suitable future occasion.

STATINTL

I expect to be in Washington in connection with the Committee on World Economic Practices on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 27-29, and possibly the preceding weekend. Grete may accompany me and if she does she will certainly look forward to seeing you and Clover, which of course goes for me.

With all the best,

Sincerely,

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.
